“Emerge Vermont gave me the skills, confidence, and network that I needed to make an impact in my community. When I began my training, I had some very basic organizing experience and no real plans to run for office. I learned so much about my path to making change in the world and was able to use those skills to help make change in the Democratic Party and in my hometown.”

– Amanda Gustin ('23), Barre City Councilor & Vice Chair, Vermont Democratic Party
